The Privacy Act 1988 (as amended) now applies and requires us to inform you that:

Purpose of collection

We collect personal information (this is information or an opinion about an individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained and which relates to a natural living person) for the purposes of providing insurance services to you, including:

- evaluating your application,
- evaluating any request for a change to any insurance provided,
- providing, administering, and managing the insurance services following acceptance of an application and
- investigating and, if covered, managing claims made in relation to any insurance you have with us or other members of the group of companies to which we belong.

The personal information collected can be used or disclosed by us for a secondary purpose related to those purposes listed above, but only if you would reasonably expect us to use or disclose the information for this secondary purpose. However for sensitive information, the secondary purpose must be directly related to the purposes listed above.

Disclosure

We may disclose your personal information (and receive personal information from), when necessary and in connection with the purposes listed above, to other members of the group of companies to which we belong, your insurance broker or our agent, Government bodies, loss assessors, claim investigators, reinsurers, other insurance companies, mailing houses, claims reference providers, other service providers, hospitals, medical and health professionals, legal and other professional advisers.

Consequences if information is not provided

If you do not provide us with the information we need we will be unable to consider your application for insurance cover, administer your policy or manage any claim under your policy.

Access

You can request access to the personal information by contacting Vero Insurance Limited.

Section 3 duty of disclosure

You have a legal duty of disclosure to us whenever you apply for, or change an insurance policy.

What you must tell us

You have a general duty to disclose to us everything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision whether to insure you, and, if we do, on what terms.

However, your duty does not require you to disclose anything:

- that reduces the risk to be undertaken by us,
- that is generally well known,
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know, or
- in respect of which we have waived your duty.

Your general duty applies to changes

Your general duty applies in full when you change an existing policy including when you extend or reinstate it.

Your general duty is limited for new policies

When you apply for a new policy your duty of disclosure applies, but you do not need to disclose something to us unless we specifically ask you about it. However, you must be honest in answering any questions we ask you. You have a legal duty to tell us anything you know, and which a reasonable person in your circumstances would include in answering the questions. We will use the answers in deciding whether to insure you and anyone else to be insured under the policy, and on what terms.

Who needs to tell us

It is important that you understand you are disclosing to us and answering our questions for yourself and anyone else you want to be covered by the policy.

If you do not tell us

If you do not answer our questions honestly or do not properly disclose to us, we may reduce or refuse to pay a claim or may cancel the policy. If you act fraudulently in answering our questions or not disclosing to us, we may refuse to pay a claim or treat the policy as never having existed.
